

CIRCADIAN® appoints Garrie Wright as Emergency Services Consultant Industry Veteran and Retired Deputy Chief from Toronto Paramedic Services

Stoneham, MA - October 10, 2017 – CIRCADIAN® the global leader in 24/7 workforce performance and safety solutions appoints Garrie Wright as the Emergency Service Consultant for Circadian. Garrie is a retired Deputy Chief from Toronto Paramedic Services with over 36 years’ experience in the emergency services industry. As Deputy Chief of Operations, Gary managed approximately 1,000 frontline paramedics.

“I am excited to join the CIRCADIAN family, and have the opportunity to bring solutions that address the major challenges of stress and fatigue that police, fire and emergency medical services personnel must cope with in the profession,” stated Garrie Wright. “

“Garrie brings the key industry expertise we need to bring our 24/7 workplace consulting and lighting solutions for fatigue and risk management to EMS, police, and fire personnel to help them optimize shift scheduling and manage stress associated with shiftwork lifestyles, said Bill Davis, VP of Operations, CIRCADIAN.”

Garrie is a recognized veteran in this industry and was awarded the Canadian Governor General’s EMS Award for exemplary service in 2005 and the Toronto Exemplary Service Award in 2006. He also received the Toronto EMS Chiefs Award for his work in improving the publics’ health and safety in the community and as Deputy Chief of Communications he managed an emergency dispatch centre that was an Accredited Centre of Excellence.

About CIRCADIAN®

CIRCADIAN is the global leader in providing 24/7 workforce performance and safety solutions for businesses that operate around the clock. Through a unique combination of consulting expertise, research and technology, software tools and informative publications, CIRCAIDAN helps organizations in the 24-hour economy optimize employee performance and reduce the inherent risks and costs of their extended hours operations. Learn more at www.circadian.com